Sir,

With reference to the correspondence resting with this Ministry's (then Department) letter No.D.492-Est.IV/47 dated the 17-2-1947 on the subject noted above, I am directed to say that for the purposes of the recovery of leave salary contribution from the Ministry of Defence in reppect of civil servants belonging to the A.I.R.O. called to Military duty during the war, actual pay drawn by the officers during their Military Service (vide A.I.I 190 of 1944) should be taken into account. When they proceed on leave after reversion to the Civil Department, the pay on which leave salary contribution was recovered as above should reckon for calculation of average pay notwithstanding the provisions of this Ministry's (then Department) letter No.F.2(I)RI/39 dated the 11th March, 1939, if periods of military service fall within the basic period taken into account for calculation of such average

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
Sd. V. Doraiswamy.
